Some Good Advice

Here is some advice given to nerchants who think they are enting down expenses when they stop advertising.

The speaker is a very emisent authority. He says:

'Your advertising—if it is advertising worthy of the name —is your best salesman and you don't healthe to lay it off indefinitely because business was bad yesterday. "Your advertising is a higger factor in your business than your location—and you'll move it down a back street or wipe our advertising location off the feeling right today.

"Your advertising is the hig sine over your door and you'll take it down and store it in the cellar; your anvertising is your most profitable and most eco nomical fax for insurance against loss, and yet you'll light by 'SAVE'—God save the mark that expense for a few days if your diamer or business conditions don't exactly suit you.

"Advertising is a great force in business and many great and many foolish claims are made many foolish claims are made for it, but it is not greater, nor more powerful than any other factor of your business. It can't do the impossible. If you or peet to get any good from it you must keep it 'on the joht' make it work while you aleep."

LET THIS BE AN "I WILL" YEAR

"I can't"-"I don't know"-"I am afraid" died with 1914.

"I will" can accomplish anything and fears nothing. Business is going to be good for "I will." He will make it so.

Life will be happy for "I will"-he de-

"I will' is aggressive, determined, sure.

He will be 1915's best newspaper advertiser-for "I will" always thinks first and chooses the best way.

FLOODS STOP FIGHTING IN BELGIUM AND FRANCE *

Paris Jan, 4.— Military operations in northern Prance and Belgium were A snow white at an almost complete standstill today owing to widespread floods.

Even the artillery was out of commission for tack of amountien. The troubles were bringed of water in many planes. Streams were nil far out of their banks and the troops had been forced to quit minuscus positions to escape drawning. Stalled transport wagons blacked the reads everywhere. A high sold wind swept the flooded countryside.
